CONSISTENT AZYIADE WINS

Froglegs Makes Remarkable Showing in Race-High Private Continues His Winning Career-Disagreeable Day, but Good Crowd at Latonia.

· Cincinnati, O., November 4.—The consistent Azylade gave further demonstration today of her quality by scoring a handy victory in the Fort Thomas Stakes, the last of the season's two-year-old fixtures, and worth $1,380 net to the winner. Froglegs, which took second money, met with various mishaps during the running, beginning with a poor break and winding up with the loss of both stirups by his rider. He made by far the best showing of any of the starters in the race and probably would have won with better racing luck. Kaiser, also away poorly, landed in third place, with Presumption and Sonada among the unplaced contest-ants. Sonada's showing was especially disappointing. He retired from active contention during the stretch drive.

A more disagreeable day for racing could hardly have been imagined. The cold was penetrating and toward the end of the day snow threatened to fall. The good card was a potent factor in bringing out a splendid attendance. The racing was keen and much enjoyed by the throng. The big operators again suffered losses, only two of their choices scoring. High Private was one of these. He showed a fine performance and stood a terrific final furlong drive to wear down and beat Hazel Burke. He was conceding considerable weight to all his opponents and his task looked hopeless on the stretch turn, but he responded splendidly to his rider's demands. Some high class platers met in the closing dash, which furnished a thrilling struggle. John Reardon was returned the winner by a small margin over John Furlong. The latter was supposed to be a "good thing," but just got up for second place. Tom Bigbee won third money in the last stride, with G. M. Miller and Silver Knight right there. Silver Knight was the favorite and failed to make good with his usual inal furlong sprint that has carried lim to so many victories. After the finish he was the victom of the claiming process. G. H. Marlman. owner of Cannon Shot, leading him to his stable for $340.

num to so many victories. After the miss ne was the victom of the claiming process. G. H. Marlman. owner of Cannon Shot, leading him to his stable for $940.

R. F. Carman's Campeon made a runaway of the third race, for which he was the favorite. Winning Widow, after interfering with Merrick and Love Watches, took second place. There was a good deal of crowding in the race and J. Allen, on Union Jack, suffered a crushed toe as a resalt. Work Box contributed to the confusion at the start by repeatedly kicking some of the others.

After dismounting from Mack B. Eubanks, jockey Taplin had to cancel the rest of his engagements on account of his injured hip. He is unfit to ride in his present condition and has been advised frequently not to attempt it until his injury has thoroughly healed.

Catesby Woodford, part owner of Sonada, wagered 500 against $300 with E. R. Bradley that his colt would beat Azylade in today's stake race.

Barney Schreiber stated today that he had arranged to lease Jack Atkin to E. R. Bradley and that he would dispose of all his broodmares except about thirty, which he will retain and breed. He is in quest of a small place in Kentucky or Missouri and will curtail his breeding operations until more favorable racing conditions prevail. His mares will be disposed of in the most profitable markets. The horses he had racing at Laurel and on the Canadian tracks have been sold to P. M. Civill.

While here yesterday John E. Madden inspected the good colt Worth, with a view to purchasing him for a wealthy English turfman. His offer for the colt, while held to be a liberal one, was nowhere near the $50,000 trainer Taylor holds him at. There is little likelihood of Worth's transfer from the Hallenbeck's establishment in the immediate fifture.

Granite came out of his race last night with a bowed tendon and will be sent to W. O. Jololin's farm at Elizabethtown to be rested for the winter, Maczie, another one of the Joplin horses that ran poorly yesterday, was taken with a bad hemorrhage after she pulled up.

The two-horse combination, consisting of Working Lad and Doncaster, paid $101.80 for $2. The three-horse combination went to the field backers.
At a sale by auction at Latonia this morning, the following horses were sold: Falcada, to Paul Miles, $1,100; Senairor Sparks, to W. Wallace, $200; Ed Keck, to J. Sterling, $450; Sam Clure, to W. Huls, $170; Planutess, to T. H. Simmons, $275; Knight Glisten, to W. Wallace, $60.

Among this morning's work-outs were the following:

Ace of Clubs—Five-eighths in 1:08\(\frac{2}{3}\). Bonanza—Three-quarters in 1:18.

Bonau—Three-quarters in 1:18.

Ganadore—Three-quarters in 1:18\(\frac{2}{3}\). Marsand—Five-eighths in 1:04.

Sureget—Three-quarters in 1:03. Sureget—Three-quarters in 1:18. Van Den—Five-eighths in 1:03.

MARVELOUS SOUTH AMERICAN SALES.

Nowhere else in the world is the turf in a more flourishing condition than in Argentina, or to be more exact, at its capital city, Euenos Ayres. The great Argentine breeding farms are nearly all in the vicinity of the city. Here are the homes of such costly and celebrated horses as Cyllene, Jardy, Diamond Jubilee. Polar Star and others of little lesser fame. The broodmares in these great studs were purchased in England and France regardless of cost and their produce is sold for prices that stagger belief. At the annual sales held in September of this year, all precedents in this regard were shattered, lavish as have been the sums paid there for young horses in former years. It is appropriate that our own harassed breeders should have a glimpse of the abounding prosperity of their South American brethren and here are some of the results of the big sales referred to. The word haras is the equivalent of stud farm:

MEXICO CITY OPENING DELIGHTS COLONEL WINN

Mexico City, Mex., October 30.—General Manager Matt J. Winn is well pleased with the opening of the Mexican Jockey Club's fall meeting, and is more than ever convinced that Mexico City is destined to become a great recing center and that, with the encouragement resultant from meetings here in the spring and fall, the breeding industry of the country will expand in a surprising manner.

"I have seen racing in the United States and in Canada." declared Manager Winn, "but I have never seen on any race track a crowd which was as well dressed and presented such a picture of wealth and fashion as did the Derby Day assemblage at the Condesa track. The class of those in attendance is a high tribute to racing and an Indication that there is some ground for the old saying that the contests between trained thoroughbreds is the 'sport of kings.' The first day's sport here satisfied me that there is a demand here for high-class racing and it will be the endeavor of the management to give the people as good a class of racing as can be seen on the large tracks in the republic to the north."

The Mexican Herald, in reporting the opening of the meeting, said:

"The president and Mrs. de la Barra, members of the greated on the large tracks in the republic to the north."

The Mexican Herald, in reporting the opening of the meeting, said:

"The president and Mrs. de la Barra, members of the diplomatic corps, high government functionaries and the society folk of the capital, of the most exclusive Mexican sets and of the foreign colonies gathered at the beautiful course, not only because it was the thing to do, but drawn likewise by the growing luterest in the struggle of horse with horse, thoroughbred with thoroughbred, with a rich prize hung up for the trim-limbed flyer which could outfoot his field. The broad lawn in front of the grandstand was rather suggestive of a garden party at Chapultepec than of a gathering at a race track. The tribunes were filled; about the bookmakers' stands to the north of the tribunes the bettors gathered to put down a wager on the various events which had been arranged for the day; there were more top hats than 'bowlers,' there were the latest models of bian coaches of the blue and red flags were to be seen."

Shooting Star, the winner of the second Mexican Derby, while foaled in Mexico, was bred at Hamburg Place, Lexington. Ky., by the famous American turfman. John E. Madden. Her dam, Star Lily, was sold for shipment here in foal to Requital, and Shooting Star was foaled in this country in the spring of 1908.

R. Hoffman, formerly with R. F. Carman's big stable in the United States, has arrived here, and will do the riding for H. R. Brandt, owner of Harrigan, Angelus, Sebago and Robert.

PLAN TO GET RID OF POOR FILLIES.

Lexington, Ky., November 4.—A plan for the elimination of those thoroughbred fillies that are lacking in conformation, individuality, bone, sinew, stammia and speed, in fact all of the requirements for the good race mare and the ideal stud matron, has been advanced and is being advocated by horsemen and breeders here with the expectation that the Kentucky State Racing Commission may adopt and foster it.

Perhaps some of those who have noted the steady stream of thoroughbred stallions and mares going out of the United States to England, France, Germany, Belgium, Austria, India, South America and Australia since the passage of repressionary racing laws in a number of our states and who have read the stories of the rapid depletion of the breeding studs in Kentucky, will wonder that anyone would regard it as necessary to make plans for "weeding out thoroughbreds." But those who are prone to wonder so are quite sure to be of the countless thousands to whom "any thoroughbred horse is a thoroughbred horse, irrespective of color, sex, size or conformation."

The plan is to have the Kentucky State Racing Commission authorize a specified number of races to be given ench year at Lexington, Louisville and Latonia for fillies two, three and four years of age with the understanding that the winner is to immediately become the property of the Kentucky State Racing Commission and by that body sold for whatever she will bring, without pedigree and into banishment and obscurity forever. The plan contemplates that the purses are to be given by the racing associations, just as are any and all of the purses on the daily programs at the various tracks, and the proceeds from the sale of the fillies, which as cannot be properly of the Kentucky State Racing Commission Handicap, to be run for at one of the three racing points annually.

The purses to be given for such races would average about $375 to the winner, and it is figured that, as scarce as really good race horses are in this country right now, there are scores of owners who wo

GOOD RACING AT NORFOLK

PATRONS OF JAMESTOWN JOCKEY CLUB TREATED TO SOME EXCITING FINISHES.

Local Interest in Sport Reported Keen-Plate Glass Scores with Butwell in Saddle in Chief Contest of Saturday Card.

Norfolk, Va., November 4.—Plate Glass added another to the long list of victories he has scored in the colors of P. S. P. Randolph when he won the Exchange Handicap, the feature race of the Jamestown Jockey Club's card today. Plate Glass was made favorite, carried 124 pounds, was ridden by jockey Butwell, and cantered home with a five lengths' lead over Cliff Edge. This race marked Butwell's first appearance in the saddle since his return from Europe and he showed that he had lost none of his skill during his absence abroad. He will ride here as a free lance during the remainder of the meeting, at the conclusion of which he will visit his old home in Toronto, Canada.

Three of the races furnished stirring contests with the winners under hard drives to win by small margins. In the fifth race the first five horses were noses and heads apart at the end, and it was only in the closing stride that Lady Sybil poked her nose in front of Senear's Pajaroita, which was made favorite, was probably best in the race, but was the victim of bad racing luck.

The attendance this afternoon was the largest of the meeting. Local interest in the racing is keen, and with the influx expected after the close of the Latonia and Marlboro meetings, it should be lively here later in the month. The result of the first race was a distinct surprise. There were only four starters and Garry was the extreme outsider. Most of the support was accorded to Chryseis, Molsant and Isidora being neglected. After Chryseis had disposed of the two choices rounding the far turn, Garry moved up and in a driving finish got up in the last few strides. Peak rode a good finish on him and he came back in the next race and landed Fond Heart in front by half a length.

The Rump, which was a starter in the third race and well fancied by his stable connections, was badly cut down during the race. The mishap occurred on the turn out of the backstretch, where Diggins attempted to squeeze through an impossible opening. In the mixup, Rey jumped on The Rump, tearing a n leg.

Secretary Gerhardy has decided to abolish entrance fees to all the races in the future. This will result in larger fields. There are plenty of horses here and the sport should improve from now on.
Diggins was suspended for four days by the starter for disobedience while at the post.

DISQUALIFICATION AT MARLBORO.

Action Officially Displeases Backers of Duncraggan, but Is Considered Just.

Washington, D. C., November 4.—The running of the last race at Marlboro this afternoon was attended by the first disqualification of the meeting, and it caused a great protest. Duncraggan, after having been backed from 3 to 1 to 7 to 5, led all the way and in a hard drive beat Hedge Rose by half a length. But Holmes, who had the mount on Duncraggan, in his desire to get to the front at the start, cut across his company and threw several horses against the fence. The decision of the Judges was really a just one, as Muff and Hedge Rose suffered considerably and the race run by Hedge Rose showed that she would have been returned an easy winner but for the interference. When Duncraggan was disqualified, first place was given to Hedge Rose, with Belle Mawr second and El Bart third. Patsy Branigan, who is said to really be the owner of the disqualified horse, created such a disturbance that he was escorted to the gate.

The Prince George County Steeplechase, which was ated such a disturbance that he was escorted to the gate.

The Prince George County Steeplechase, which was won by the favorite, Duffield, was also marred by rough riding, which brought about the suspension of Jockey Ned Henderson for the rest of the meeting. Henderson, who rode Garterman, sent his mount into the lead right after the start and Garterman led by a big margin until after the last jump had been cleared, when Duffield, closing with a rush, began to cut down the leader's advantage. At the head of the stretch, Duffield had overtaken Garterman and then Henderson resorted to rough riding in an effort to get his mount home first. He bumped Duffield several times and it is also said that he struck Duffield with his whip. But the last named was much the best and he reached the finish first by a neck. He could have won by a greater margin had his rider desired.

BALLOT TO SERVE IN ENGLAND.

Information to the effect that James R. Keene's splendid young horse, Ballot, has been ordered to be shipped to England served among other rumors, to revive last summer's report that he had been, or was to be, sold to the German government for service in the royal Graditz Stud. By way of home news from abroad it now appears that Ballot has been ordered to England to become a stud mate of Colin at Newmarket. It would now be not at all surprising to hear presently that Mr. Keene had ordered some of his choice broodmares sent over also, with the view of establishing a replica of Castleton Stud in his native land. As to Ballot, a recent edition of London Sporting life, says:
"James R. Keene has given instructions for Ballot to be shipped forthwith to England. I understand that the son of Voter will stand next season at the Heath Stud Farm, Newmarket, where Colin has been for the past two seasons. Ballot was a great performer in his native land, and much was expected of him when he came over with Colin in 1909. For some reason or other he never quite settled down to racing in this country, though he won the Select Stakes, beating Valene, Succour and St. Victrix. He returned to America, and has, I believe, been in training until recently. Many of our best judges consider him a better-looking horse than Colin. It may be remembered that about two months ago a report gained currency that Ballot had been purchased by the Prussian government. There was, however, no foundation for the statement."

LA BELLE STOCK FARM LEASED.

Lexington, Ky., November 4.—H. M. Moore, of this city has leased for a term of three years the La Belle Stock Farm, three and one-half miles from this city on the old Frankfort pike, and will establish a trotting horse stud there. La Belle has been for twenty years a breeding place for thoroughbred horses, it having been used by Eugene Leigh, now a successful trainer in France; H. P. Headley and the late William C. Whitney, who at one time had there the famous Hamburg, Meddler and one of the most valuable collection of broodmares in the world

GALLINULE'S ASTONISHING VIRILITY.

Next New Year's Day Gallinule will be twenty-eight years of age, for he was foaled in 1884. Is it not, therefore, most remarkable to find him the sire of nine of this season's winning two-year-olds? At the present moment no other sire can lay claim to so many successful juveniles. The American horse, Hamburg, runs him close with eight. Then comes Lord Bobs with seven, followed by Farmar, Minstead, and Thrush, with six each, and Eager, Desmond, Matchmaker, Oppressor, Santry, and Symington with five each. Of late years we have seen Sundridge, Eager, Mauvezin, and one or two other sires represented on the turf by half a score or so of winning two-year-olds in one season, and away across the Atlantic Cesarion has "turned them out" by the score. The significance of Gallinule's record jies, however, in the fact that he was twenty-four years old when he begot the crop that have kept his name to the fore these last few months. His vitality must be extraordinary—almost comparable with that of the first Derby winner, Diomed, who was shipped to the United States when twenty-two years of age, lived for nine more years, and founded a dynasty in the land of his adoption.

Comparisons can be not only oflious, but misleading. It is, nevertheless, interesting to recall that in 1908, when St. Simon was the same age as Gallinule is now—it was the year he died—he was credited with no two-year-old winner. It so happens that seven of Gallinule's nine two-year-old winners are fillies. They are Alope, a chestnut out of Manuka, by Eager; Shocking Bird, out of Startling, by Laveno: a chestnut out of Halma, by Boulevard, son of Uncas; Nedda, a chestnut out of Nirvanah, by Eager; Glisten, a chestnut out of Diamantee, by Diamond Jubilee; and Jimena, a chestnut out of La Roche, by St. Simon. The two coits are Giscau Bellen, a bay out of Petit Bleu, by Eager, and Win stanley, a bay out of Petit Bleu, by Eager, and Win noticed that three of the dams are by Eager, so that in these cases the produce is closely in-bred to Ster-ling, both Gallinule and Eager being grandsons of that Yardley jewel. Four of the other dams are direct descendants of Galopin.—London Sporting
